WAR DEPARTMENT

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

WASHINGTON.

ESB/EVC
ORD

Feb. 14, 1927.

Respectfully returned to

Mr. Durward Cuthbert Collier,

Barnesville, Ga.

The name Vines Collier has not been found on the records on file in this office of soldiers of the Revolutionary War from Virginia or any other state.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that the desired information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

There are no military records in this Department of a date prior to the War of the Revolution. Such Colonial War records as are in existence, except those in possession of the British Government, are most likely to be found in the custody of the various states that sent troops to those wars, or in some instances, of historical societies.

Under the rules of the War Department, requests, to receive consideration, should be made over the autographed signature of the writer.

No fees are charged by this Department for its official acts.

ROBERT C. DAVIS

MAJOR GENERAL,

The Adutant General.
